

K-love is one of the only positive and encouraging radio stations in San Diego County. It encourages the family and is safe for everyone to listen to. The station provides help and encouragement for those in need. This station points people in the right direction and I believe that it is in the public's best interest to have more positive stations like K-love.